Summer 2021

Reliabank is Expanding to Colton

The bank will be in the former U.S. Bank building at 200 E 4th St and will add a drive-up lane along with other remodeling.

Reliabank is a family-owned community bank with assets totaling $650 million. It was founded in 1920 in South Shore and expanded to the Sioux Falls area in 2007 with a branch in Hartford.

Colton will be Reliabank's 10th location, with other branches in the area, including Hartford, Humboldt, Tea and in Sioux Falls at 85th Street and Minnesota Avenue, which also houses the bank's mortgage department. North branches include Estelline, Hayti, Hazel and Watertown. The plan is to open in Colton this winter.

Reliabankers Ripple Their Money

David W. Johnson, CEO and Board Chair, and Jan Johnson, Board Member, recently presented a $1200 check to Joy Ranch of South Dakota for camper scholarships created by the "Ripple Effect" concept. The Reliabank "ripple" took $60, and through the generosity of Reliabankers, saw the $60 become. Reliabank sponsored the "Ripple Effect" portion of LeaderCast Women's Seminar in Sioux Falls, giving $10 to all participants. Reid Johnson, Chief Culture Officer, presented the money to approximately 280 women who attended. "The idea was that they would ripple the $10 dollars into something more to benefit a good cause, just as a stone thrown in a pond ripples the water outward," he said.

Six Reliabankers, Carrie Bell, Val Engels, Sara Halvorson, Jan Johnson, Jennifer Lubenow, and De Rentsch, attended the seminar and chose Joy Ranch of South Dakota as the recipient of their rippling efforts. "We asked Reliabankers from every branch to match the $10 or donate whatever they chose," Jan Johnson, coordinator of the project, said. "By pooling our money together, we can provide scholarships for families of disabled or ill children who can't afford camp, often because of the burden of medical expenses," she said.

De Rentsch, Sales and Service Manager, summed up the project, "The conference focused on the difference each one of us can make. It didn't focus just on the difference we can make for our jobs or careers, but on personal and spiritual goals for each of us also. I was fortunate to attend."
