Your typed essay is worth up to 40 points, the largest portion of your scholarship application. In your own words, write a description of yourself which incorporates the following components: the thing you are most proud of in your life, three words to describe yourself (please include examples), and an overview of your future plans. You may address these components in any order for the best overall effect and feel free to use a separate piece of paper if necessary. Please note that your essay will be evaluated for creativity, style, and grammatical content.
